Mr. Dulles:

Your friend [redacted] card has been in touch with [redacted] and advised them that he plans to be in Washington on April 30 (Wednesday) enroute to a Thursday meeting [redacted] New York. He did not specifically ask for an appointment to see you, but did say that he would like you to know he would be staying at the Cosmos Club on the 30th in the event you would care to have a talk with him. [redacted] felt that while [redacted] did not specifically request an appointment to see you, he nevertheless would apparently like to present to you an idea for meeting what he believes is the "national need for single-minded psychological warfare direction."

You are seeing [redacted] in the morning on April 30th, and have OCB that afternoon. Do you still wish to try and arrange to see [redacted] anytime that day?
